Please read the descriptions of each camp/activity carefully as the information varies.

Programming is based on the grade a child is entering in the 2025-26 school year.

- 1) An individual is not registered for a program or activity until all necessary forms are completed and returned to the Recreation Department with the correct payment. To avoid disappointment, please read all age requirements, immunization forms and registration fees.
- 2) All activities listed in this brochure have a minimum and maximum requirement for participation. While we make every effort to run all our programs as advertised, we reserve the right to cancel a program due to lack of registration. We will create waiting lists if maximum numbers are reached.
- 3) Please pay special attention to the beginning and end times of all activities. You CANNOT drop children off early or pick children up late. If you do, you will be charged an extra fee. There is no supervision outside designated times. Please be respectful of our staff.
- 4) Disruptive and unsafe behavior will not be tolerated at any of our camps or programs. Disruptive and unsafe behavior is anything that, in the opinion of the Parks & Recreation Director or camp supervisors, compromises the safety of others or quality of instruction. Individual situations will be assessed, and it will be up to the discretion of the Director whether a participant will be allowed to return to the program.
- 5) Activities with the Marcellus Recreation Department are NOT pro-rated.
- 6) Once you have registered yourself or your child for an activity, we do not make follow-up calls. You will only hear from our office if there is a change to the program.

It is the policy of the Marcellus Recreation Department that no child will be denied participation in the Children's Recreation Morning Program because of an inability to pay.

All inquiries will be held confidentially. To inquire, call Don MacLachlan or Michele Norstad at 315-673-3269 ext.2.

Calling all Stars! This is a two-week theater camp for young performers ages 6-13. Students will audition, rehearse, and take the stage to perform “The Emperess’s New Post” on the last day! Through games, explorations, and exercises, students will use their creativity, improve their communication skills, and collaborate with their peers to put on a performance they can be proud of – supported by the education and production staff of The REV Theatre Company.

In The Emperess’s New Post, the most popular influencer at her high school is convinced by two jealous classmates to promote a ridiculous new trend—wearing trash bags as high fashion. As the school embraces the “Avant-gard” look, her followers go wild, but things spiral out of control when the truth about the scam is exposed. A hilarious yet insightful look at social media, trends, and the pursuit of validation, this modern adaptation of The Emperor’s New Clothes shows the dangers of blind conformity and the importance of staying true to oneself.
